As a middle grader, DIVYA wrote her first book. And then she promptly forgot the password to the file. She has learnt better and has now written four books. Her most recent book, Misfit Madhu, won the Neev Book Award and was on the Parag Honour List in 2023. Her other books are Dare Eat That (winner of the Gourmand Award in 2019), I Hate My Curly Hair and Written in the Stars.

Agalya in the Spotlight

DIVYA ANAND

Illustrations by INDRANI GHOSH

What does a princess look like?

Nine-year-old Agalya is on cloud nine—she has been cast as Rapunzel in the school play! But her excitement is short-lived when her best friend, Prisha, turns against her. Prisha wanted the role too and can't understand why Agalya, who usually loves sports, suddenly cares so much about being a princess in a play.

Just when things couldn't get worse, Agalya develops alopecia, leaving a glaring bald spot on her head. A bald Rapunzel? That's unheard of!

As whispers and self-doubt grow, she must find the courage to embrace herself. Can Agalya rise above it all and let her true self shine?

SATYAJIT RAY (1921–1992) was one of the greatest filmmakers of his time and received the Academy Award for Lifetime Achievement in 1992. In the same year, he was honoured with the Bharat Ratna, India's highest civilian award. A true polymath, Ray was not only a visionary director but also a brilliant writer, illustrator, designer and music composer.

Ghosts, Supernatural and Tales of the Uncanny

SATYAJIT RAY

Translated by GOPA MAJUMDAR and INDRANI MAJUMDAR

Unveil the strange, the eerie and the unexplained in Ghosts, Supernatural and Tales of the Uncanny—where the ordinary blends into the extraordinary.

Strange things happen all the time—doors creak open, shadows shift when no one's looking, and some places never quite forget their past.

Enter the world of mystery, magic and macabre with master storyteller Satyajit Ray as he weaves the finest supernatural tales. Featuring haunted houses, curious doppelgangers, sinister shape-shifters and the lingering echoes of a forgotten past, these hauntingly beautiful stories are presented for the first time to a new generation of readers in this collectible edition, featuring Ray's original artworks.

Joyrides: Carnival of Creeps (A Fearless Four Paranormal Thriller)

NEIL D'SILVA

Illustrations by DOODLENERVE

The island chooses who gets to leave!

The Fearless Four is a paranormal investigation agency run by the brave youngsters—Riz, Anvita, Tiana and Palash. After the horrors of their previous case, they are on a thrilling vacation to Funmania, the grand amusement park on Bongo Island, which boasts of the biggest ride in the world: the Big Loopy.

However, strange things begin to unfold as soon as they arrive—the Wailing Witch begins to haunt the island with her eerie cries, the island's fierce inhabitants are hiding secrets, and, even more mysteriously, their friend Cyrus disappears from the cart while riding the Big Loopy!

With time running out on their three-day trip, they must face the blood-curdling dangers of the island before Cyrus is lost forever. With no one to trust, will they be able to uncover the twisted truth before their friend is gone for good? Or will they become the witch's next victims?

India in Triangles: The Incredible Story of How India Was Mapped and the Himalayas Measured

SHRUTHI RAO & MEERA IYER

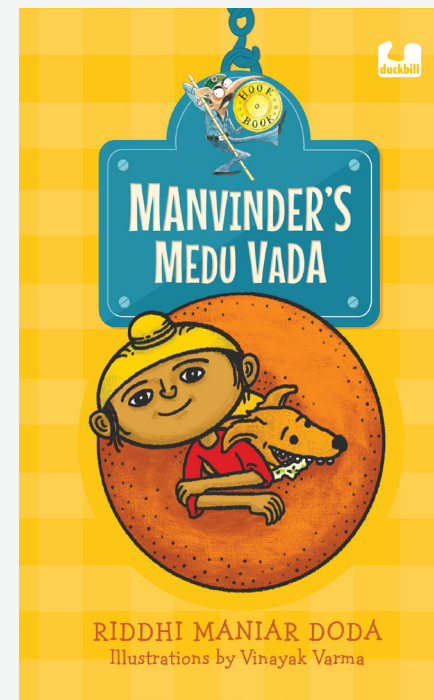

A fascinating book about the Great Trigonometrical Survey of India—one of the largest and most impressive scientific feats in history!

As the British East India Company established itself in India and gained more and more territories, it wanted to map the land it was acquiring. But the methods that existed for this purpose at the time lacked precision. Under the leadership of William Lambton, a soldier with experience in surveying, a project was launched in the early nineteenth century that proposed to initially map the state of Mysore and eventually the entire subcontinent through a series of triangulations. What was originally expected to take just five years ended up spanning seventy years!

The Freezies

FARRUKH DHONDY

A heartwarming story that explores themes of friendship, what it means to be a refugee, and standing up for what's right in the face of injustice.

Suleikha, Leo and Kai call themselves the Freezies because they've been frozen out of the popular groups of their village school.

One day, a battered van with a trailer attached is found parked in the Mead, the open village green. In it is Mr Christaki, who is unkempt in appearance but gentle in speech. His appearance creates fissure lines in the village, which divides into camps that cannot agree over what is to happen with Mr Christaki. Meanwhile, Mr Christaki makes his own place in the community and becomes music tutor to the Freezies.

And then events spiral and grow until it becomes something much bigger than the Freezies could have ever imagined, and they have to plan a daring and dangerous public ruse to save their friend from the devastating fate he faces...

Life's Magic Moments

RUSKIN BOND

Illustrations by KAJAL BHOJAWALA

'People are stories. Stories are people.'

As he steps into his ninety-first year, the prolific Ruskin Bond brings nine decades of wisdom to his readers, encapsulated in a book that draws from the author's most personal experiences.

Reflecting on childhood and old age, people and places and Mother Nature—an inseparable part of his life—the writer ponders over the fleeting nature of human ambition, the sanctity of dreams (for he still dreams) and the endless generosity of our planet.

Fresh and witty, the text puts forth profound learnings with a candour that is uniquely his. Featuring life lessons, musings and memorable quotes, this book is a tribute to life's magical moments. Because when life fades, it's words and memories that live on.
