MAMTA NAINY is a writer based in New Delhi. She has authored over thirty books for children, many of which have gone on to win national and international awards and recognition. She also works as a literary translator, translating primarily from English to Hindi, with several published works of translation.

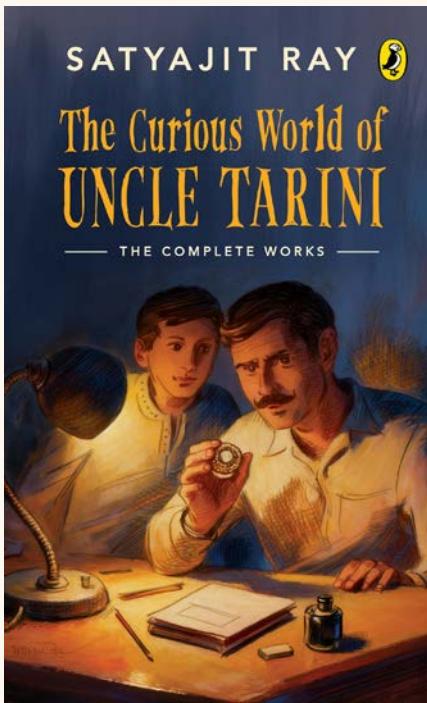

Jivya's Talking Hands: How Jivya Soma Mashe Found His Voice Through Art

MAMTA NAINY

Jivya followed the ants everywhere—up mud walls, through rustling leaves, over cool stones. After losing Aai, when his own words slipped away, the ants became Jivya's only friends. Then one day, they led him to a new place. A place filled with lines, circles and triangles... a place filled with stories about the people and life around him.

Could this discovery help Jivya tell his own stories and give him a new voice, one that needed no words at all?

SATYAJIT RAY is one of India's most celebrated storytellers, who is known for his work across film and literature. His writing continues to delight readers with imagination, humour and mystery.

The Curious World of Uncle Tarini: The Complete Adventures

SATYAJIT RAY

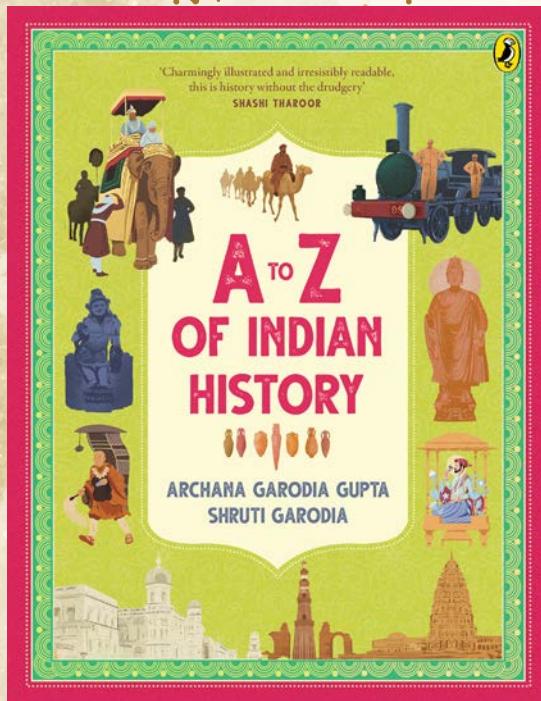

Tall tales. Twisted truths. Timeless charm.

Step into the irresistible world of Tarini Khuro—the witty, eccentric, unflappable adventurer whose life reads like one long, outrageous anecdote. Whether he is single-handedly outsmarting a venomous scorpion and an even more venomous twelve-year-old prankster in Ajmer before landing in the middle of a terrifying dacoity or spending a night in a haunted hunting lodge, calmly interviewing a ghost at midnight or travelling across India as manager to a master magician, Uncle Tarini never fails to enthrall his young listeners.

For the first time, all fifteen Uncle Tarini stories appear together in this complete English translation, bringing Satyajit Ray's inimitable humour, warmth and sense of wonder to a new generation of readers.

This collector's gift edition also features rare, original artworks by Satyajit Ray, offering a glimpse into the creative universe of one of India's most celebrated storytellers and filmmakers.

Battle of the Minds: How Viswanathan Anand Became the King of Chess

MAMTA NAINY

'The pieces looked like lifeless soldiers. But in Vishy's mind, they were alive.'

To everyone else, the chessboard was just black-and-white squares. To Vishy, it was a fantastical world of leaping knights, swooping bishops, shape-shifting pawns and clever queens. With Amma as his opponent, every match was a battle of wits waiting to unfold. Could Vishy outsmart Amma and find the winning move? And could these early games prepare him for the greatest chess stages in the world?

On Air with RJ Rini!

SONIA MEHTA

When one chatterbox discovers radio, the whole colony starts listening!

Rini is a certified chatter-machine with a heart full of stories and a mind that never stops buzzing. She talks to everyone—her mirror, her plants, even the toaster—but at home, no one has time to listen.

Then one day, Rini stumbles upon the magical world of radio . . . a place where people want to hear you talk! Suddenly, becoming an RJ becomes her biggest dream. With a hairbrush for a mic and her eccentric neighbour, Gaga, as her cheerleader, Rini practices non-stop.

Set in the lively Sunshine Colony—home to noisy courtyards, quirky aunties and chaotic funfairs—this warm, funny story follows Rini as she discovers confidence, friendship and the joy of having her voice heard.

Wild in the Backyard 2

AREFA TEHSIN

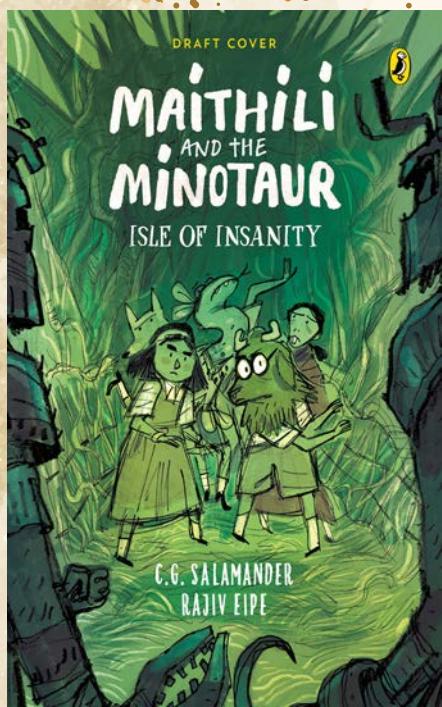

Your backyard is buzzing—meet the wild, weird, wonderful neighbours you never noticed.

Put on your explorer's hat and grab your detective's glass—your home and garden are full of tiny oddballs and mighty misfits! From porch-loving hornets and wall-munching termites to night-time popstars in the garden and a fish that seems to know how to walk, these are the critters who share our homes, beds and heads (yes, really).

You'll spot shiny skinks sunbathing, earthworms with many hearts in the soil, beetles rolling balls of poop and bright guppies swimming in rainbow colours. There are fireflies with glowing bottoms, a chick that keeps a super-messy nest and even a flatworm that can grow back if it's cut in half!

Some of these critters work hard, some sleep a lot, some have long sticky tongues and some can smell your breath when they come close for a tiny sip of blood.

So get ready to find the secret, surprising world of creatures living right beside you!

GAYATHRI PONVANNAN'S first book, Time Racers, was published by Puffin India in 2016. She has also written for several newspapers, anthologies and magazines.

The Hill Vaidyar's School of Medicine and Magic GAYATHRI PONVANNAN

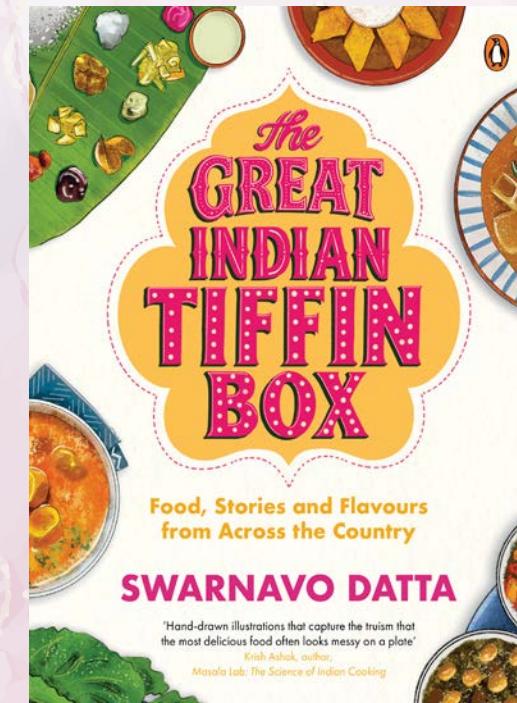

Three boys. One stolen relic. A race against time itself.

In the bustling Chera port of Muciri, thirteen-year-old Kathir believes that the god-like ancient Siddhars belong only in folklore—until he is sent to apprentice under one atop the mist-laced Agastya Mountain. What he finds there is a world where medicine borders on magic, forests guard ancient memories and time keeps its own secrets.

When a sacred relic vanishes and a student disappears, Kathir, along with his friends Atreya and Nakulan, is pulled into a perilous journey across ancient India. To mend what has been broken, they must unravel prophecies hidden in stars and silence and confront powers that can twist destiny itself.

Rich with lore, wonder and adventure, The Hill Vaidyar's School of Medicine and Magic is a story of courage awakening in the unlikeliest of hearts.

The Great Indian Tiffin Box: Stories and Flavours from Across the Country

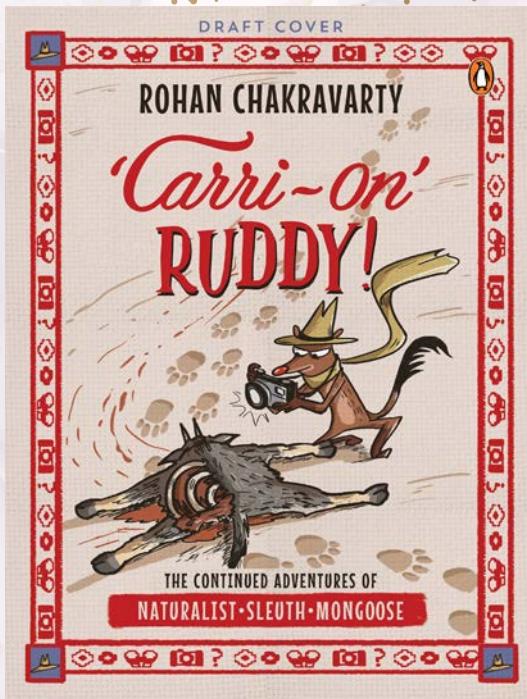

SWARNAVO DATTA

Embark on a Culinary Adventure, One State at a Time!

India's food is as diverse as its people, changing dramatically in taste, technique and ingredients every few kilometres. One of our first introductions to this wide range of cuisine is through the tiffin boxes of our classmates. Carrying flavours from different families and cultures, these boxes hold many stories—of history, tradition and the country itself.

The Great Indian Tiffin Box is a delightful exploration of this culinary diversity, featuring a curated list of popular and unique dishes from each Indian state and union territory. Peppered with lesser-known facts and interesting recipes, this beautifully illustrated book is a celebration of India's rich food heritage and is a perfect read for food enthusiasts and cultural explorers alike.

ROHAN CHAKRAVARTY is the creator of Green Humour, a series of comics and illustrations on wildlife and nature conservation. Rohan has authored seven other books, including Green Humour for a Greying Planet, Naturalist Ruddy, and Pugmarks and Carbon Footprints.

‘Carri-on’, Ruddy!: The Continued Adventures of the Naturalist-Sleuth Mongoose

ROHAN CHAKRAVARTY

Are you ‘ruddy’ for your next wild adventure?

In the lush forests of central India, where teak meets sal and the landscape shifts from plateau to hills, Naturalist Ruddy—a clever ruddy mongoose—serves as Kanha’s resident nature detective. With an instinct for digging and a nose for mysteries, Ruddy investigates unusual phenomena and animal interactions that unfold as nature’s ‘crime scenes.’ No laws are broken, but every day presents a new puzzle to solve: hoof and claw marks on trees, cannibal bees and lichens that threaten lizards.

Ruddy’s investigations whisk you across India’s unique landscapes—the Western Ghats, hill forests of the North-east, and the high Himalayas—where you’re invited to play detective, unearthing clues alongside Ruddy with fun, interactive mysteries.
